No Way Out

No way out. It is a simple phrase that we are all familiar with. When we have no options left, backs against the wall. Regardless of how much we try to fight back, we're left with no other choice, but to give in. That's the choice our client, Poe Cameron, had to make. She was forced to commit a crime that she didn't want to be a part of. Out of fear for her life and the life of her child, she had to give in. There was no. way. out.

Down on her luck, Poe Cameron was looking for a job when she reached out to her sister, Memphis Raynes. At the time, she had no clue what she was getting herself into. When she arrived at Memphis's apartment she was shocked to find Midlands tech giant, Berkley De La Porta inside. She was even more shocked to learn the job was to rob the Sohi Children's Hospital gala at Miller Tower. She tried to leave, but she was met with threats. Not only to her life, but to her son's. The only way to ensure both of their safety was to follow along and not get in trouble. She had no way out.
